"As I Teach Them Everywhere in Every Church"
by Mike Webb

Paul wrote in 1 Cor.4:16-17: "I urge you, then, be imitators of me. That is why I sent you Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, to remind you of my ways in Christ, as I teach them everywhere in every church"

The teaching of the apostle Paul was timeless, consistent , and universally binding. He did not teach one thing at Corinth and another message at Ephesus. He taught the same thing everywhere in every church. Paul makes this point repeatedly in 1 Cor. The end of 1 Cor. 7:17 says, "This is my rule in all the churches." He gave instruction concerning order in the assembly in 1Cor. 14:33 and said, "as in all the churches of the saints."

God's word does not change from church to church. God's word is the same. Considering the fact that Paul preached the same message in every church, Could Paul preach at your church? Would he be welcome if he preached Gal.3:26-27 which says, "as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ"? Would he be welcome if he preached Col.3:17: "whatever you do in word or deed do all in the name of the Lord Jesus"? Would he be welcome if he preached that baptism is a burial as in Romans 6:3-4?

Paul wouldn't change his message for Your church or mine. Someday we will be judged by the things that Paul and the other inspired men taught (Rom.2:16). We must change to conform to the message because the message is the same everywhere.

The Bible Still Matters

By Mike Webb

Many today believe that what the Bible says no longer matters. They view the Bible has an outdated book that is no longer relevant for our day and time. They put more stock in the polls than in the revealed will of God to determine what is right and wrong. In spite of this attitude, the Bible still matters.

1. The Bible Still Matters Because It is Still the Word of God. Paul wrote, "all scripture is inspired of God".   Literally that means "all scripture is God breathed". The Bible is not a book of human origin but it is a God's word. If it is God's word then the Bible still matters.

2.The Bible Still Matters Because God Hasn't Changed. God is the same today and he was 2,000 years ago. The Hebrew write says, "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever." Peter said, "the grass withers and the flower fades away but the word of God endures forever" (1 Peter 1:24-25). God has changed so the Bible still matters.

3.The Bible Still Matters Because You Will Be Judged by It One Day. Jesus said, "the word that I have spoken will judge him in the last day" (John 12:48). We will stand before God and he will open his word and judge us by that word according to what we have done (Rev.20:12-15). If I am going to be judged by God's word then the Bible still matters.

Not only does the Bible still matter, but it is in reality that only thing that really matters. Do you care what the word of God says?
